Code of Conduct

In respect of internal and external communications, presentations and documentation

- 1) All material will aim to be civil, tasteful and relevant.
- 2) We will guard against any defamatory comments. A defamatory comment is one that is capable of damaging the reputation of a person or organisation.
- 3) No reference to any information or data that knowingly breaches anti-trust / competition rules and laws of the EU or any country where documents, statements or material originating from the SSC will be made available or any information deemed to be commercially sensitive or confidential or in breach of any copyright or other rights of control over use and display will knowingly be used or distributed
- 4) SSC will not incite people to commit any crime, including fraud, theft, acts of violence or incitement of racial or religious hatred.
- 5) SSC will not make public any content or material which has been copied from someone else and do not own the copyright, without the permission of the copyright owner
- 6) SSC will not post messages that are unlawful, harassing, defamatory, abusive, threatening, harmful, obscene, profane, sexually oriented, homophobic or racially offensive.
